

Those are words we hear but what do they really mean? Local merchants support youth activities, the community, and provide employment opportunities. We need them as much as they need us.

Many lives and businesses have been seriously impacted by the Coronavirus COVID-19; some more than others. Many are operating on a shoestring budget; some may be on the brink of closing their doors for good. No one wants that!

THINK LOCAL, SHOP LOCAL

Support all Russell County Merchants and our Advertisers

The Lebanon News

276-889-2112